

Ayala triangle gardens lights & sound show

Over the holiday period Ayala triangle put on a real show! The gardens were buzzing with lots of people from young to old. Kids were running around, some had found spots to sit, while half the crowd were standing. The atmosphere was full of excitement either from just seeing the show or from the anticipation of what was to come. The show ran every 30 mins from 6pm until 9pm. We got there just after 8pm. We had a walk around the gardens & noticed how full all the cafés were. People were everywhere! It was packed. We found a spot to watch the show. There was no right or wrong spot as the lights were up above among the trees. At 8:30pm it started! The trees came alight & the music was electric. It was magical, spectacular & full of energy. I only wish it could have gone for longer than 5mins! I took lots of photos and a video to try and capture the moment. If you not been I highly recommend to check it out next year! It usually starts mid November until the end of December.
